It is moreover, it is agreed that, without prejudice to the evidence referred to in Article 10 of the Directive, it is for the National Court to determine whether, in the light of the circumstances of the 1588 civ. code, in the event of a failure or damage that results in the immobilization of the vehicle, the Lessor is authorized to charge the Customer the amount for towing as indicated in the "Damages Table". It is also established that, if after the Customer has requested the intervention of the tow truck does not give rise to the towing of the vehicle by choice or in any case by fact referring to the Customer himself, or to repair on site, the customer will be charged the cost of the intervention to the extent of the 100% of the cost of towing.
